"Inspired By The Bay"

Area Artists Share Their Vision of Buzzards Bay

Like most coastal communities, the shores and towns which surround Buzzards Bay draw their share of artists who are inspired by the ever-changing climate and variety of landscapes indigenous to New England. Few places in the United States can boast such a multitude of seasonal variations — enough to make Vivaldi proud.

That's why it stands to reason that many local artists eventually turn their attention to the striking sea and land imagery just outside their front door.

"There's a real wide variation in the types of land in and around Buzzards Bay," agreed Mattapoisett native David Baggarly. "There's marsh land, islands, coves, rocky beaches ... and the colors change a lot during the day. The water and sky conditions are nearly unpredictable."

Now a resident of Providence, RI, Mr. Baggarly is just one of eleven local artists whose work is featured in an exhibition titled "Inspired by the Bay," hosted by the Rogers Gallery of Mattapoisett to benefit the Coalition for Buzzards Bay. The exhibit is running now through August 4.

Organized by gallery owners Louise and Ben Rogers, the maritime-theme exhibit also includes the paintings of Virginia Lovejoy Allyn, John "Andy" Anderson, Ruth Devine Anthony, Sarah Brown, Bill Elliott, Frank McCoy, Nancy Dyer Mitton, Arthur Moniz, Charles Parsons, and Peter C. Stone.

"We've wanted for some time to assemble an exhibition reflecting the many faces and moods of Buzzards Bay, in order to contribute to the essential work of the Coalition for Buzzards Bay in restoring and protecting this magnificent body of water," said Ms. Rogers. "The Coalition's leadership and vigilance in the ongoing clean-up of the bay led us to sponsor 'Inspired by the Bay.' This is one of the most apt and appealing exhibitions we have ever shown."

Using many familiar sites and historic landmarks as their subject, the artists included in the exhibit have captured the essence of life along the tell-tale New England shore. Most works have been crafted, appropriately enough, in watercolor. But others add dimension with pencil and graphite sketching or the rich texture of oil.

One could easily spend an entire afternoon gazing at the detail and craftmanship that went into each and every painting. And looking at these familiar sites through the artists' eyes fosters an increased appreciation for the area's beaches and nautical settings.

"Naturally, I've been in New England all my life, so it's part of my nature," said Arthur Moniz of Fairhaven. "When they first approached us about doing something for the exhibit, I agreed because it's a worthwhile cause."

Mr. Moniz's sharp watercolor images are meticulously detailed and are first drawn in pencil and graphite before being washed over and filled in with watercolors. "The paintings are all typical of my style," he said. "It's sort of different from traditional watercolor. I do a very detailed pencil drawing and use the watercolor to fill it in ... it really sort of evolved on its own, because I'm very particular about detail."

Among those paintings included in Arthur Moniz's collection is the original wide, panoramic portrait of key landmarks in Mattapoisett which was made into prints and sold at the town's recent Harbor Days celebration.

Like Mr. Moniz, Marion's Charles Parsons also gets a great deal of inspiration from the scenery of his native surroundings. Prominent in his exhibit is an eye-catching watercolor of a pickup truck parked at Silvershell Beach amidst the bare trees and mud-soaked background of early spring weather. Stripping away the usual bright blues and yellows of summer from this natural seaside setting doesn't diminish its allure.

"That little tree is gone now and more erosion has worn away at the beach," Mr. Parsons said. "It's a real sensitive sort of painting that I did last spring."

Having admitted to being a painter for many years — since the time when his mother first hung his work on their ice box — Mr. Parsons relishes the natural setting of Buzzards Bay and Marion.

"There's so much to paint here, there's not much reason to go anyplace else," he said. "When I do travel, I paint landscapes, seascapes, some cityscapes ... but I still prefer (Buzzards Bay)."

Mr. Parsons also noted that there are many other interesting subjects in and around the area that he's latched onto which aren't directly related to the bay. "When I first came to this area, I was fascinated with the cranberry bogs," he said. "I've done several paintings of them over the years."

Likewise, fellow Marion resident and artist Peter C. Stone agreed with Mr. Parsons' assessment of area landscapes.

"I probably tend to look for the rougher edges of landscapes," he said. "I'm very much a pleinair (outdoor) painter ... so I, naturally, paint quite a bit around the bay."

Mr. Stone's textured oil paintings are a stark contrast from the majority of watercolor entries, and they afford a slightly more colorful and intense view of the bay. One particular example is "Beetle Cat," which depicts a small cat boat sailing off the north shore.

"It's fairly indicative of my work, only smaller," he said. "Most of my work is much larger ... so these aren't what I would call studies, because I complete them as paintings unto themselves."

And like his fellow artists, Mr. Stone cannot help being infected with the need to capture his native surroundings on canvas. "Anyone that lives anywhere near Buzzards Bay cannot help but be affected by it," he said. "It's the major geographical feature of the area, and most artists will eventually respond to their surroundings."

Despite the primary focus of depicting the picturesque setting of the various seaside Massachusetts towns, many artists in the exhibit also see this as a chance for area residents to realize the value of this wonderful and sometimes neglected natural resource.

Mattapoisett artist John "Andy" Anderson, who is also on the Coalition for Buzzards Bay's Board of Directors, feels his work will give people a better perspective on this vital body of water — and maybe even prompt them into preserving it for future generations.

"I like to depict things that are passing from view in my work," Mr. Anderson said. "I've been a lifelong fisherman in this area, and I've watched the stock of fish dwindle. I can remember as a kid seeing literally dozens of schools of striped bass in the harbor ... as they migrated south every fall. Now, it's rare to see even a few large schools of fish."

Mr. Anderson hopes that through efforts like this exhibit, the Coalition can continue their work in promoting both the maintaining and preservation of Buzzards Bay to area residents who might otherwise allow it to "pass from view."

"That's the whole purpose behind the coalition — to make the public aware that we have a delicate resource that requires protection," he said. "If we want our grandchildren to be able to catch any type of fish in Buzzards Bay, we have to take action now to ensure that fish like the striped bass aren't wiped out."

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

July 26, 1994

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was call to order on Tuesday, July 26 at 7:20 pm by Chairman John N. DeCosta. Also present were Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney, Selectman Paul E. Lambalot, and Executive Secretary Carol Adams.

After approving the minutes of the July 19 meeting and signing all the payrolls, permits and outgoing correspondence for the week, the board met with Safety Office Paul Magee of the Police Department regarding the parking ban recently placed on lower Main Street. Officer Magee noted that since having restricted parking to one side of the street, there has been a marked improvement in traffic flow.

"All the signs have been posted as of this week, and it seems to be working," he said. "Chief (Moran) has now suggested that we also post the speed limit at 25 miles per hour (mph) for all of Main Street from Water and Beacon to the intersection of Ned's Point Road."

Officer Magee noted that having observed the area for a period of time, cars average 35 to 45 mph which is a bit fast for that section of road which is often travelled by pedestrians. With that suggestion, the Board of Selectmen unanimously voted to post the speed limit at 25 mph, as per Officer Magee's suggestion.

At 7:10 pm, the board met with members of the Mattapoisett Rescue Team to discuss the group's ongoing fund drive to raise money in order to purchase a replacement rescue vehicle. The current vehicle is considered a "light duty" vehicle, according to Rescue Squad member John DeCosta, Jr., and the squad is hoping to upgrade to a "medium duty" vehicle within the next three years.

"We sent letters out about three weeks ago, and so far we've already raised $10,350," Mr. DeCosta said. "That's about double the rate we normally do ... we're all pretty happy with the response we've received so far."

Mr. DeCosta noted that the plan is to raise a total of $150,000 over the next three years — averaging about $50,000 each year. The monies raised will be used expressly to purchase a new rescue vehicle to accommodate the town's growing rescue efforts.

"Right now, the problem is we've got more equipment than we have vehicle," agreed Rescue Team member Albert Sylvia. "We need something that we store all of our emergency equipment, including the ice rescue set-up we bought last year."

Mr. DeCosta presented each of the Selectmen with a drive sticker, which features the squad's emblem and reads: "We Support Mattapoisett Rescue Team." The stickers — which were donated by The Wanderer — will be given to anyone who makes a contribution to the effort. Mr. DeCosta noted that anyone who has already donated can receive a

The board next approved a clerk's certificate confirming their vote last week to post "no parking" signs on the west side of Main Street; approved a request from Town Clerk Lois K. Ennis to seek advice of Town Counsel; and unanimously voted to re-appoint Arthur C. Thompson as the Town Engineer, for a period to expire April 30, 1995.

Chairman DeCosta noted that the board would meet on Monday, August 1 at 7:00 pm to discuss AFSCME negotiations and decided to postpone their meeting with the Police Union for a later date.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received copies of Waterways License Applications to maintain existing filled wharves for Mr. and Ms. Donald Rice and Mr. and Ms. Christopher Arnold for a wharf located off Ned's Point Road; the Quadequina Company, c/o Coastline Engineering, Inc. for a wharf located in Mattapoisett Harbor; and the Cannonville Beach Association for a wharf that is also located in Mattapoisett Harbor.

The board also received an application to maintain an existing sea wall located on Ned's Point Road from Philip Trumbull and Gertrude Burr.

Chairman DeCosta next cited an invitation for the board to participate in the Acushnet Annual Apple/Peach Festival Parade to be held on Sunday, September 11 at 10:00 am.

Representative William Straus sent the board a copy of the letter he sent to Attorney General Scott Harshbarger regarding the possible sale of SEMASS and the effect of said sale on participating SEMASS communities, including Mattapoisett. Rep. Straus noted that some discussion has been made that SEMASS may be bought by American Refuel, a partnership which is half-owned by Browning-Ferris Industries (BFI). Rep. Straus noted that such a transaction would have to reviewed by those towns currently under contract with said corporation, under General Laws, Chapter 93, Section 8.

Dennis Luttrell, Executive Director of the Buzzards Bay Action Committee, next sent a letter to the board regarding the state's Appropriations Act for Fiscal 1995 (House Bill 5001). According to Mr. Luttrell, said act would become a model for environmental and building code regulations ... and would allow municipalities to evaluate the number of substandard septic systems, underground fuel tanks, or homes with lead paint in order to determine what needs to be done to remediate these problems.

Chairman DeCosta noted that such a provision would do well for the town in determining the age and condition of their own underground fuel tanks now being used by the Highway and Police Departments. "I've been talking to William Nicholson about the tanks we have now at the Highway Department," Chairman DeCosta said. "I think those tanks have been there for a good 30, maybe 40 years. If they're not leaking, I think we should start thinking about having them replaced."

Under the Executive Secretary's Report, Ms. Adams noted that a firm which recently pitched the idea of a Cafeteria Plan for Town Hall employees had inquired about a follow-up meeting. But the board preferred to hold off on the matter as not many employees seemed interested. "I'm inclined to put it on hold for a bit, especially with all this Health Care Reform on the horizon," said Selectman Mahoney.

Selectman Lambalot suggested a third party be brought in to further explain the good and bad points about starting such a pension plan. The board agreed to look into this possibility in the future.

Ms. Adams also noted that Town Accountant Joe Bolton had inquired as to whether the board was agreeable to increasing the town's mileage compensation rate with the IRS' recommended amount. The town currently pays 28 cents per mile, but the IRS has increased that to 29.5 cents a mile. The board agreed to keep the amount in line with the IRS.

At 7:50 pm, the Selectmen met with the Library Trustees to appoint a new member to fill a vacancy on their board. Trustee Chairman Ralph Silva informed the Selectmen that of the two applicants interested in the position, the Trustees had voted, 3 to 2, to appoint Caroline Mock. The Board of Selectmen unanimously voted to appoint the Trustees' recommendation, to fill out the term which will expire with the next town election in April, 1995.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:15 pm.

Editor's Note: During the summer months, both the Rochester and Marion Boards of Selectmen have adopted an alternating schedule of meeting every other week. As a result, neither board met during the week of July 25.

called full tape and measure revaluation) as well as a full computer conversion. A full tape and measure revaluation is required by the Department of Revenue every nine years.

The 1994 fiscal year values are based on the 1992 sales and properties are valued as of January 1, 1993. The value of many properties decreased as compared to the last revaluation which was based on 1989 sales.

The tax rate for fiscal 1994 has been certified at $12.38. The increase over the previous tax rate of $10.54 is due to increased spending, lower valuations, debt exclusions, and the fact that most of the properties destroyed by Hurricane Bob were not completed as of January 1, 1993.

The project was an arduous task that, fortunately, will never have to be done again. The Assessors plan to inspect 1/9 of the properties in town on an annual basis, rather than once every nine years. Also, the Assessors' in-house computer system is online and updates can be made annually.

Globe Theater Presents "Harvey"

The Globe Theater Troupe, Inc. of Rochester will present "Harvey" in the delightful air conditioning of the new Wareham High School Auditorium. "Harvey" is the Pulitzer Prize-winning play written by Mary Chase. This perennial favorite will be performed on Friday and Saturday on the weekends of August 5-6, August 12-13, and August 19-20 at 8:00 pm.

"Harvey" was first performed in New York City in the mid-forties and became an instant success. The story follows the adventures of Veta Louise Simmons and her daughter, Myrtle Mae, as they try to separate their uncle and brother, Elwood P. Down, from an unseemly — or, rather "unseenly" — friend, Harvey. Made into a motion picture starring James Stewart as Elwood, "Harvey" has signature campaign at the Ed Sullivan Theater in New York City on Tuesday, June 14. The group chose the Ed Sullivan Theater for its New York kickoff because David Letterman tapes his show there. For months they have been seeking Letterman's support by asking him to sign their petition. So far, all they got was an autographed photo of Letterman.

Although the group failed to gain Letterman's support, Joanne Byron, "America's New Age Model" and National Chairman, declared the trip a huge success. Besides gathering over 1,000 signatures, Byron said that the group was greeted with enthusiastic support from Letterman's guest stars, Ted Danson and Carl Reiner, as well as former Boston Celtic great Bill Walton.

The group is dedicated to educating and changing the attitudes of the advertisers and industry leaders who are excluding men and women over 40 from the job market, much to the detriment of the overall economy. Therefore, their latest campaign is aimed nationwide.

Doorway Posters

A most unique poster, titled "Mattapoisett Doorways," is now available at the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House.

This black and white poster has photographs of sixteen different interesting and attractive doorways of homes around the village. Printed on heavy stock paper, the poster measures 20 x 30 inches and is priced at $10 and is now available at the Museum and Carriage House located at 5 Church Street. A key to the houses in the poster is also available and a mailing tube may be purchased for an additional minimum cost.

The poster will be a nice addition to your home or office as well as a great reminder of our town and former residents.

Project GROW Preschool Applications

Project GROW, the local public school early childhood program, is seeking students for the upcoming school year. Anticipated state grants, combined with local funds, support the operation of the program. Project GROW classrooms are located at the Center School in Mattapoisett, Memorial School in Rochester, and Sippican School in Marion.

All classes run for four hours a day, Monday through Thursday, and follow the public school calendar. The program is tuition free. Parents are responsible for providing transportation to and from school each day. Efforts are made to assist parents in forming carpools.

Enrollment is open to all children residing in Marion, Mattapoisett, or Rochester who were born between January 1, 1990 and September 1, 1991. Preference will be given to children from low-income families and others in need as determined by the Early Childhood Advisory Council. The purpose of Project GROW is to provide a preschool experience for their child as well as to provide other children with special needs the opportunity to receive service in the least restrictive environment.

Each class consists of up to fifteen students, the majority of whom are students without special needs. The program is staffed by a certified teacher and an aide. As a family-centered program, parents play an active, vital role in the educational experience through a wide variety of parent involvement opportunities. Home visits are also an integral part of Project GROW. The teacher visits each student's home regularly throughout the year.

A recent mailing, based on town census information, was sent to all families with age-eligible

First Congregational Church

For over 100 years, the First Congregational Church of Marion has held their annual fund raising event at 28 Main Street. What began as a sale of hand-sewn aprons and baby's clothing has burgeoned into an Annual Summer Fair, welcoming both summer visitors and community members. This year the church's traditional Summer Fair will be held on the church grounds on the corner of Main and Front Streets on Saturday, July 30, from 10:00 am to 1:30 pm.

The Chapel Cafe, featuring lobster roll plates, will open at 11:00 am in the Community Center Hall. The Prepared Foods Table will sell ready-to-eat casseroles, meat pies, hors d'oeuvres and canapes, jams, and pickles in the church vestry. The Sweet Shop with homemade fudge and other candy, and the Cheese Table will be set up in the vestry, too,

Real Estate

REALTOR

WHAT GOES WITH HOUSE?

Real estate is usually defined as the land and everything attached to it, such as: buildings, trees, shrubs, etc. The buyer normally gets all of the real estate, but none of the owner's personal property. The problem arises when personal property has become a part of the real estate. This is called a fixture and does pass with the real estate.

There are three usual tests which must be satisfied. Has the personal property been permanently annexed to the real estate? Is it intended to become part of the real estate? And finally, what is the local custom? Usual fixtures might include: shades, heaters, ranges, screens, storm windows, lighting fixtures, etc.

It is important that the seller spell out specifically in his sales agreement exactly what he intends to give to the buyer as part of real estate. This will save misunderstanding at the closing, and sometimes save a sale.

Volleyball Tournament Fundraiser

The I. H. Schwartz Children's Rehabilitation Center is still recruiting teams for its Beach Volleyball Tournament to be held August 6 (rain date August 7) at East Beach in New Bedford. Both experienced and "backyard" players are welcome.

Teams of six to eight players can enter the tournament by soliciting sponsors and raising a minimum of $300. The tournament will include prizes, a barbecue and refreshments for everyone. Awards will be given to the top teams. Company-sponsored teams are also welcome.

The New Bedford Exchange Club has entered a team and is challenging other area service clubs to do the same, said club President Edward J. Adamowski.

The tournament is part of the Schwartz Center's annual Sports Weekends fundraiser, sponsored by McDonald's of New Bedford and Fairhaven. Also upcoming is a 6.2 mile Walk-A-Thon and Golf Tournament. Both are scheduled for September 11 at the Allendale Country Club.

For registration information for the volleyball tournament or other Sports Weekends events, please call Carol Almeida at 996-3391.

Sports Weekends is the Center's biggest annual fundraiser. Proceeds are used to benefit its programs. The center is a non-profit agency that

Circus Returns to Mattapoisett

An entertainment critic for the daily newspaper in New Brunswick, NJ recently reviewed Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus. He wrote: "Like a bridge of dreams, Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus connects youth with old age. This is what makes the circus timeless ... the pleasure it gives to one and all."

The Mattapoisett Lions Club announced recently that they will be bringing Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus back to Mattapoisett on Tuesday, August 2 for two performances at 6:00 and 8:15 pm. The familiar red and white striped big top will be set up that morning for the one day engagement.

Each performance of Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus is opened by Ringmaster Billy Martin with the familiar "Children of all ages, welcome to the all-new 1994 edition of the famous Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus presented by Joyce and Alfred Vidbel, the Circus as remembered by your grandparents, the circus beautiful." This announcement at the start of each performance in 1994 has special significance because this is the eleventh annual tour of Vidbel's Circus.

Vaudeville, minstrel, variety and boat shows came on our country's entertainment scene and disappeared by the end of the 1930's. Movies, television, and home videos are currently big in the lives of many families, but the circus continues to provide enduring, live, family-oriented

When Vidbel's Circus comes to town, nemories — particularly among senior citizens — re recalled of circus days in past years. Admittedly ome of the romance of the circus has disappeared ... he great teams of draft horses, the traditional street arade on circus day, and a gigantic menagerie with trange and exotic animals from around the world. Iowever, the actual circus performance has changed ery little over the years. It is performing elephants, he hilarity of clowns, the skills of acrobats and

Adoptable Animals

"Cammi of the Sea"

"Cammi" came to this area via the tall ship (barkentine) Gazela Philadelphia in the Spring of 1994. She had been found by a Camden, NJ humane society worker, along with her litter of kittens in a box that was taped shut. The husband of one of the humane society's workers is a volunteer with the Philadelphia Ship Preservation Guild, the owners of the Gazela. When a call came from the guild for a ship's cat, "Cammi" came to Gazela with this volunteer.

She got used to shipboard life, as long as the ship was docked, but when going out to sea for the summer sailing season, she got miserably seasick and did not get over it. The crew thought she'd be better off ashore in a caring home, and so the decision was made to find such a home in the New Bedford area, the first call on the ship's Northern trek.

A crew member found out about Animal Umbrella, Inc. from The Wanderer, and she made the arrangements for "Cammi" to leave the ship. "Cammi" is about a year old, with a tortoise shell coat, and has a gentle, shy personality. She is spayed, has all her immunizations, and is litter-trained.

Meanwhile, Gazela will sail onto Martha's Vineyard, Nova Scotia (four ports), Boston, and Bath, Maine, before arriving home in Philadelphia on September 3. "Cammi" is now in the care of Animal Umbrella, who is offering this brave little sailor cat up for adoption.

In addition to the sea-going cat, the group

Marion Art Center

Vereano Exhibit

An exhibition of paintings and monotypes by the late David Vereano (1949-1993) will be on display at the Marion Art Center during the month of August. Working with the Pucker Gallery on Newbury Street in Boston, the Exhibition Committee has arranged to mount this special show. The formal opening of the Vereano exhibit will take place on Friday, July 29 between 5:00 and 7:00 pm.

"The landscape painting of David Vereano gives us a personal response to the light and air of his favorite places," said critics Melissa Meyer and Allan Gurganus. "These places include Cape Cod, the California Coast, and the Hudson Valley ... with the monumental sense of Morandi Classical Vision and the bravura brush work of the Abstract Expressionists, Vereano peels away the conventions of landscape painting. He shows us the horizons as ourselves."

Pamela Fletcher further noted: "To call David Vereano's oil paintings 'landscapes' is almost misleading — they might more fittingly be called 'skyscapes,' almost abstractions. To lose oneself in even the smallest of these paintings is to lose oneself in a welcoming eternity of time and space."

David Vereano was born in Alexandria, Egypt and emigrated to the United States in 1962. He studied at Boston University where he received a MFA degree. His undergraduate work was at Queen's College in New York, and he attended several institutes and received grants as artist-in-residence in Europe and the U.S. Vereano's work has been shown in galleries throughout the Northeast. The Marion Art Center's one-man showwill run through August 24. Gallery hours are Monday - Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm, and Saturday, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

The No-Frills Revue

Bartleby Scrivener Poetry Group

The Bartleby Scrivener Poetry Group now has a new meeting place. The poetry group will be held at the Java Bean Gourmet Coffee Cafe, 26 Water Street (across the street from the entrance to the YMCA) in historic downtown New Bedford. Bartleby Scrivener Poets takes its name from Bartleby, the scribe, the main character in Herman Melville's short story "Bartleby, the Scrivener." The tale tells of a nineteenth century scribe who refuses to compromise his principles and conform to the conventions of his day.

The purpose of the poetry group is to promote discussion and give encouragement and feedback to poets in an informal, pleasant atmosphere. The format is not primarily a workshop, but rather a place where poets and poetry lovers can talk about poetry and share their work and insights.

The Bartleby Scrivener Poetry Group will next meet on Monday, August 1, beginning at 6:30 pm with a sign up and socialize period, and will have a discussion from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. Poets are encouraged to bring about 15 copies of one poem for discussion. The group meets on the first Monday of each month. For more information, please call Susan Grace at 758-4694.

College Athletic Scholarships

Over 100,000 collegiate athletic scholarships are available each year to male and female high school and junior college student athletes. Contrary to popular belief, students don't have to be All State to qualify. Much of this money goes unused. A new publication with forms, sample letters, and tables of factual information is available for student athletes. It takes them step by step through the process of getting an athletic scholarship and includes college and conference listings.

I came to Tobey because I wanted to create a top notch anesthesia service where it was needed. The equipment we now have is the most up-to-date technology available. What we also have at Tobey is a real sense of community with our patients. We see the same families again and again. They know us and trust we'll give them the best care possible."

Orleans' noted guitarist and lead singer John Hall will perform along with Larry Hoppen on guitar and keyboards, Bob Leinback on keyboards, and Peter O'Brien on drums. "Compass Bank is delighted to join UMass Dartmouth in providing cultural events for the people of southeastern Massachusetts," said Mr. Champagne.

"We are extremely appreciative of the support Compass Bank has shown both to the university and to the cultural life of the community it serves," agreed Chancellor Cressy. "The Pops Concert, the King and I musical, the Eisteddfod Folk Festival are all emblematic of the creativity and talent which abound here at UMass Dartmouth. We are fortunate that Compass Bank president Kevin Champagne and senior vice president Timothy H. Dyer know that encouraging these endeavors enriches all who participate."

The trip is scheduled to begin at 9:00 am and conclude at 12:00 noon.

The fee for this trip is $15 for members and $18 for non-members. Please pre-register by calling the Lloyd Center at 990-0505.

Moonlight Canoe Trip on Slocums River

Enjoy a moonlit canoe trip on the Slocums River on Saturday evening, August 20. Guided by a nearly-full moon, Lloyd Center naturalists will lead the trip under a sky peppered with stars forming both familiar and unfamiliar constellations. Be prepared to hear the mystical howling of the coyote and to see the silhouette of the great horned owl as it flies silently in search of unsuspecting prey. Many things await participants on this night excursion.

An overview of paddling skills and canoe safety will precede the trip, which is scheduled to begin at 6:00 pm and is expected to be completed by 11:00 pm. Participants should bring their binoculars, insect repellent, and any food or drink they desire. The cost of the trip is $18 for Lloyd Center members, and $22 for non-members. There is an additional charge of $5 per person for canoe rental, but participants are welcome to supply their own canoes. Participants are asked to pre-register by calling the Lloyd Center at 990-0505.

Children) Program invites everyone to join with them in celebrating World Breastfeeding Week. Despite the many reasons to breastfeed, the United States still lags far behind the rest of the world in breastfeeding their infants. World Breastfeeding Week, which will be recognized from August 1 - 7, will focus on increasing the awareness of the World Health Organization (WHO) Code.

The WHO Code is a mechanism to promote and protect breastfeeding in all countries by "affirming the right of every child and every pregnant woman to be adequately nourished ... and that breastfeeding is an unequalled way of providing ideal food for the healthy growth and development of infants."

Plymouth WIC follows this philosophy by providing nutritious foods to pregnant women and offering the encouragement and support to breastfeed. As a service to participants, Plymouth WIC has a lactation consultant on staff that will provide breastfeeding information and support during pregnancy, through the birth of the baby and beyond.

Please call the Plymouth WIC office at 747-4933 to learn more about breastfeeding and to see if you qualify for WIC benefits.

Marion Water Department

The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the Marion Water Department are concerned about the lead in your drinking water. Although most homes have very low levels of lead in their drinking water, some homes in the community have lead above the EPA action level of 15 part per billion (ppb), or 0.015 milligrams of lead per liter of water (mg/l).

Lead is a common metal found throughout the environment in lead-based paint, air, soil, household dust, food, certain types of pottery, porcelain and pewter, and water. Lead can pose a significant risk to your health if too much enters your body. Lead builds up in the body over many years and can cause damage to the brain, red blood cells, and kidneys. The greatest risk is to young children and pregnant women. Amounts of lead that won't hurt adults can slow down normal mental and physical development of growing bodies.

In addition, a child at play often comes into contact with sources of lead contamination — like dirt and dust — that rarely affect an adult. It is important to wash a child's hands and toys often and to try to make sure they put only food in their mouths.

Lead in drinking water, although rarely the sole cause of lead poisoning, can significantly increase a person's total lead exposure, particularly by the exposure of infants who drink baby formulas and concentrated juices that are mixed with water. The EPA estimates that drinking water can make up twenty percent or more of a person's total exposure to lead.

Lead is unusual among drinking water contaminants in that it seldom occurs naturally in water supplies like rivers and lakes. Lead enters drinking water primarily as a result of corrosion, or wearing away, of materials containing lead in the water distribution system and household plumbing. These materials include lead-based solder used to join copper pipe, brass- and chrome-plated brass faucets, and, in some cases, pipes made of lead that connect your house to the water main (service lines). In 1986, Congress banned the use of lead solder containing greater than 0.1 percent lead and restricted lead content of faucets, pipes, and other plumbing materials to 8.0 percent.

When water stands in lead pipes or plumbing systems containing lead for several hours or more, the lead may dissolve into your drinking water. This means the first water drawn from the tap in the morning, or later in the afternoon when returning from work or school, can contain fairly high levels of lead.

Despite our best efforts mentioned earlier to control water corrosivity and remove lead from the water supply, lead levels in some homes and buildings can be high. To find out whether you need to take action in your own home, have your drinking water tested to determine if it contains excessive concentrations of lead. Testing the water is essential, because you cannot see, taste or smell lead in drinking water. Some local laboratories that can provide this service include:

Aquatec, Inc., 150 Herman Melville Boulevard, New Bedford, MA 02740, Tel. 990-3400; or Energy and Environment Engineering, Inc., 35 Medford Street, Somerville, MA 02143, Tel. 617-666-5500.

If a water test indicates that the drinking water drawn from the tap in your home contains lead above 15 ppb, you should take the following precautions:

• Let the water run from the tap before using it for drinking or cooking any time the water in a faucet has gone unused for more than six hours.

• Try not to cook with or drink water from the hot water tap. Hot water can dissolve more lead more quickly than cold water.

• Remove loose lead solder and debris from the plumbing materials installed in newly-constructed homes or homes in which the plumbing has been recently replaced.

• If your copper pipes are joined with lead solder that has been installed illegally since it was banned in 1986, notify the plumber who did the work and request that he or she replace the lead solder with lead-free solder.

• Determine whether or not the service line that connects your home or apartment to the water main is made of lead.

• Have an electrician check your wiring. If grounding wires from the electrical system are attached to your pipes, corrosion may be greater.

• Purchase or lease a home treatment device. Home treatment devices are limted in that each treats only the water that flows from the faucet to which it is connected and all of the devices require periodic maintenance and replacement.

• Purchase bottled water for drinking and cooking.

Under Federal Law, we are required to have a program in place to minimize lead in your drinking water by June, 1996. This program includes corrosion control treatment, sour water treatment, and public education. If you have any questions about how we are carrying out the requirements of the lead regulation, please give us a call at 748-3540. You can also call the Massachusetts Public Health Department at 1-800-445-1255.
